

About Our Health System

UPMC Altoona (part of the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center hospital network) is a 400-bed regional health care system providing care to residents of a six-county service area in central Pennsylvania. UPMC Altoona is a level II trauma center, regional oncology center, and a JCAHO-certified stroke center. UPMC Altoona provides comprehensive cardiology and cardiovascular surgery, behavioral health and a vascular and wound care center. The Health System's medical staff is comprised of approximately 400 primary care physicians and specialists.

About UPMC Altoona Elite Orthopaedics

UPMC Altoona Elite Orthopaedics is a full service orthopaedics practice providing services to patients referred from 70+ primary care physicians in the community and from the Hospital's emergency and trauma departments. The Practice medical office, which includes in-office imaging and an EMR, recently relocated to a newly constructed 90,000 square foot medical office complex. Current orthopaedic surgeons include an orthopaedic spine/total hip surgeon, an orthopaedic trauma surgeon, a total joints specialist and a sports medicine specialist who is vacating the position soon. The practice is currently hiring for a hand & upper extremity surgeon as well as a generalist, both to step into established practices. A 7th fellowship trained foot and ankle surgeon will be joining the practice in 2018. Rounding out the Sports Medicine practice will be a Concussion Fellowship trained Neurophysiologist joining in Summer of 2018.
